DEFENDANT MAYFLOWER TRANSIT, LLC'S UPDATE
REGARDING MEET AND CONFER ON OCTOBER 11, 2024

In anticipation of the October 15, 2024 conference with the Court the parties conferred via zoom to discuss the pending discovery dispute. Mayflower updates the Court regarding three developments.

First, as the Court requested, Mayflower has reviewed the documents from Mayflower's privilege log. Of those documents, certain documents related to corporate organization that were logged as not responsive or irrelevant for the pending requests will now be produced. Entries 67, 70, 73, 112, 115, and 118 were withdrawn from the privilege log. Given the second requests for production, those documents will be produced as responsive to certain requests related to jurisdictional discovery.

Second, the remaining documents that contain financial information and attorney-client or work product information will be withheld for the reasons asserted in the privilege log.

Third, Mayflower and Plaintiffs have selected a date on which the parties and the witness are available for UniGroup C.A.'s corporate representative deposition relating to the jurisdiction motion filed by UniGroup, C.A..
